From the Principal's Desk

Dear Parents

"Teachers who love teaching, teach students to love learning."

The month of September saw some major celebrations taking place in school. On the occasion of Teacher's Day, a series of fun activities followed by a special lunch was organised to honour and appreciate our teachers. Grandparents' Day celebration was another major highlight of the month. Our little Wonderites gave adorable performances, expressing immense love and affection for their doting grandparents who graced the occasion with their presence. Janamashtami celebrations also formed a part of this action-packed month.

We at Smart Wonders believe in laying a strong foundation for our students by maintaining a balance between both academic as well as co-curricular activities. I extend my heartiest congratulations to all the students who have brought fame and laurels to the school with their active participation in various State, District and Inter School events.

I would also like to share that we have relaunched the much-awaited Morning Sports Coaching for our team players and the Evening Sports Academy in our school premises. Sports play an important role in a child's overall development and make life all the more rich, fun and rewarding. These classes would provide an excellent platform for the students to train under the supervision of skilled instructors using the state-of-the-art sports infrastructure being offered by the school.

The month of October will see the Senior Wing Annual Play being performed at the Tagore Theatre. Our students are balancing their academics as well as practice sessions, and enjoying every bit of the run-up to the much-awaited annual function. I am proud of the efforts and enthusiasm being showcased by our talented Wonderites, and wish them all the best!

I would also like to appreciate the role of the parents, and assure that with your continued love and support, October is going to be yet another month full of learning, growth, excitement and fun. I wish all those reading this message, a very happy and prosperous festive season ahead!

Warm regards
Poonamjit Kaur

Music - A Therapy

When words falter and emotions are left, this is called music. It is the poetry of our heart and soul. It makes us sway in its flow and makes us laugh, cry and smile. Have you ever listened to a song and thought, "Oh! This is my jam." This emotional response to music is one of the oldest human traditions with our heart and soul. Music is beautiful because of the way in which vibrating air molecules are produced, transmitted, detected and perceived by human beings. As Bismillah Khan famously stated, "Teach your kids music, even the west is coming to learn from us." It is one thing that unites us all. We may express ourselves through music in a manner that language cannot. A study from Harvard has shown that relaxing music may lower blood pressure and stabilize the heart rate. It can also improve mood and reduce anxiety, bringing people together. It also helps to reduce loneliness and social isolation. It is the most powerful form of energy in this world. You may ask how and why. Let me give you an answer: It has the power to transport us back in time, to calm our worried minds or boost our moods. "There really is a song for every emotion".

Obstacles are what you see when you take your eyes off the goal

It is inevitable that we will encounter obstacles and challenges throughout our lives. These obstacles may seem daunting and insurmountable but they are simply temporary roadblocks that can be overcome with determination and perseverance.

When we lose sight of our goals and become fixated on the obstacles in front of us, we tend to lose motivation and focus. It is important to remember that obstacles are part of the journey towards success. They provide us with valuable lessons, teach us resilience, and push us to become stronger individuals. By keeping our eyes firmly on the goal, we can navigate through these obstacles with a clear direction and a positive mindset. Instead of allowing obstacles to discourage us, we should view them as opportunities for growth and self-improvement. As we overcome each hurdle, we gain the confidence and skills needed to tackle even bigger challenges in the future.

Let us not be disheartened by the obstacles that come our way, but rather let us embrace them as stepping stones towards our ultimate goals. As long as we remain committed towards maintaining a positive attitude, we will be able to accomplish our goals. Ultimately, keeping one's gaze fixed on the goal ensures that obstacles are viewed as mere stepping stones towards personal growth and success.
